WHEREAS, on September 15, 2019, the Purdue Debtors each commenced with the Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”);

WHEREAS, on September 20, 2019, the Court appointed Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC (f/k/a Prime Clerk LLC) (“Kroll”) as the Purdue Debtors’ claims and noticing agent. See [Purdue Dkt. No. 6];

WHEREAS, certain Endo entities have been named in over 3,500 lawsuits stemming from the nationwide opioid epidemic. See Declaration of Mark Bradley in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Papers at ¶ 49 [Endo Dkt. No. 38];

WHEREAS, given the potential overlap in opioid claimants in both the Purdue Chapter 11 Cases and the Endo Chapter 11 Cases, Endo is attempting to notice all opioid claimants in the Purdue Chapter 11 Cases in connection with (a) the potential sale of substantially all of Endo's assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) the establishment of a bar date and deadline to file proofs of claims in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases to ensure the broadest possible notice to potential claimants in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases;

WHEREAS, Kroll, in its capacity as one Party's noticing and claims agent, does not share non-public information with Kroll, in its capacity as the other Party's noticing and claims agent, without the consent of the Party that originated the non-public information or a court order;

WHEREAS, contact information for many of the claimants in the Purdue Chapter 11 Cases that are not individual persons is publicly available through the Purdue Debtors' claims register and, as to those claimants, Endo intends to utilize (or has already utilized) the available addresses in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases to send a notice outlining (i) how a party may file a proof of claim in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases and (ii) details regarding the potential sale transaction under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code;

WHEREAS, the Purdue PII Order protects “personally identifiable information of any individuals listed on or appearing in any document filed with the court.” See Purdue PII Order at ¶ 9. As a result, Endo is unable to review the Purdue Debtors’ claims register to obtain information necessary to provide notice in connection with the Endo Chapter 11 Cases to the Purdue Debtors’ opioid claimants who are individuals;

WHEREAS, Endo seeks an exception to the Purdue PII Order to allow the respective Kroll teams working in the Purdue Chapter 11 Cases and in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases to share and utilize in connection with the Endo Chapter 11 Cases the personally identifiable information of creditors with opioid related claims in the Purdue Chapter 11 Cases, solely to the extent necessary to allow Endo to send direct notice to such individuals or their counsel;

WHEREAS, the Court previously approved a substantially similar order to allow Mallinckrodt plc to provide notice to holders of opioid related claims in its chapter 11 cases [Purdue Dkt No. 3704];

NOW, THEREFORE, the following is hereby stipulated and agreed to by the Parties, subject to approval of the Court:

1. Kroll, in its capacity as the Purdue Debtors’ noticing and claims agent, is authorized to share with Kroll in its capacity as Endo’s noticing and claims agent: (a) (i) if a creditor with an opioid related claim is represented by counsel, such counsel’s information, and (ii) if a creditor with an opioid related claim is not represented by counsel, personally identifiable information of such creditor, and (b) other information publicly available (and information not otherwise publicly available) on the Purdue Debtors' claims register, in each case, solely as necessary to allow Endo to provide notice to such individuals or their counsel in connection with the Endo Chapter 11 Cases, including for purposes of (a) providing notice of the potential sale of substantially all of Endo's assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) the establishment of a bar date and deadline to file proofs of claims in the Endo Chapter 11 Cases, and Kroll, in its capacity as Endo's noticing and claims agent, may utilize such information for such limited purposes and no other purposes (the "Noticing Information"); provided, that Kroll, in either of its capacities as Endo's or Purdue's noticing and claims agent, shall not utilize any such Noticing Information in such a manner that would result in Kroll being required by the Court to disclose such information publicly; provided, further, that to the extent any Noticing Information shared pursuant to this Stipulation and Order is considered confidential information, Kroll in its capacity as the Purdue Debtors' noticing and claims agent shall not share any such confidential information with any other persons, and any such confidential information shared with the Parties hereto shall not be further shared with any additional persons, other than as expressly permitted herein; and provided, further, that no other information or work product of the Purdue Debtors or Endo shall be shared with any other Party pursuant to this Stipulation and Order.

2. Kroll, in its capacity as Endo's noticing and claims agent, shall be the only recipient of the Noticing Information and is authorized to use the Noticing Information for the purposes stated herein.

3. All Noticing Information shared pursuant to this Stipulation and Order shall be subject to the Purdue PII Order and the Endo PII Order.

4. Notwithstanding and in addition to any prior agreements by the Purdue Debtors or Endo to indemnify the Indemnified Parties (as defined below), the Purdue Debtors and Endo, jointly and severally, shall indemnify, defend and hold Kroll and its members, directors, officers, employees, representatives, affiliates, consultants, subcontractors, and agents (collectively, the “Indemnified Parties”) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, liabilities, and expenses, whether direct or indirect (including, without limitation, counsel fees and expenses) (collectively, “Losses”) resulting from, arising out of or related to the sharing and utilization of the Noticing Information (including any opioid claimant personally identifiable information) in accordance with the terms of this Stipulation and Order; provided, however, that in no event shall Kroll be indemnified in the case of its own bad faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence or willful misconduct related thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Losses include any liabilities resulting from claims by any third parties against any Indemnified Party.

5. Nothing in this stipulation creates an obligation or any liability on either Party to the other Party, including as to the adequacy or sufficiency of the other Party’s noticing program.

6. The terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

7. The Purdue Debtors, Endo, and Kroll (as noticing and claims agent in both cases) are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary or appropriate to implement the relief granted in this Stipulation and Order.

8. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the information shared pursuant to this Stipulation and Order.
